Confidentiality & Notice Policies

The Ypsilanti Food Cooperative sometimes has to share its owners' information as part of running the business. For example, as an owner, your name and address maybe be listed along with all the other owners' names when the co-op is applying for or maintaining its WIC and Supplemental Assistance application or its Alcohol Retail Sales License.

The co-op and its staff agree to keep confidential owners' personal and financial information that is updated through the membership records. The co-op will:

- Not share nor sell names, addresses, emails, or other contact information
- Limit the number of staff members who have access to the membership database
- Store membership information in a secure office

We will use your name or member number to apply your member discount to each purchase you make at the co-op. The co-op does not sell this information to outside companies. The co-op does not use its system to monitor your purchases. We do send coupon books and sale fliers to our members on occasion.

The co-op has the right and responsibility to send its owners:

- Information
- Regular updates about the co-op and its operations,
- Notification of the Annual Membership Meeting
- Occasional coupon books and sale fliers

I agree to the terms of this agreement and understand the needs my co-op has for the information requested:

* On Fair Shares, Refunds, and Discounts (from YFC by-laws and policies):

- a. The required member equity, or Fair Share, is determined by the Board.
- b. Members are informed that equity investments are a) at risk, and b) generally refundable, though the Board retains the right to withhold refunds when necessary to protect the Cooperative's financial viability.
- c. Equity will not be refunded if such refunds would lead to a net decrease in total member paid-in equity, or would risk, cause or exacerbate non-compliance with any Financial Condition policy.
- d. Members may name one Designated Shopper (same address) who may receive a grocery discount through a member's card but who may not vote. Only members in good standing may vote.
